

Contents of Volume 17

No. 1

Photographic feature: Rock jointing at the Penmaenbach Headland, North Wales	ii
Waste Disposal
G. BONNEY: Introduction: Waste disposal—where are we now?	1
C. J. SWINNERTON: Protection of groundwater in relation to waste disposal in Wessex Water Authority	3
R. HOLMES: Comparison of different methods of estimating infiltration at a landfill site in south Essex with implications for leachate management and control	9
C. BARBER & P. J. MARIS: Recirculation of leachate as a landfill management option: benefits and operational problems	19
H. ROBINSON: On-site treatment of leachate using aerobic biological treatments	31
G. M. WILLIAMS, C. A. M. ROSS, A. STUART, S. P. HITCHMAN & L. S. ALEXANDER: Controls on contaminant migration at the Villa Farm Lagoons	39
R. C. HARRIS & D. R. LOWE: Changes in the organic fraction of leachate from two domestic refuse sites on the Sherwood Sandstone, Nottinghamshire	57
R. D. BARKER, J. W. LLOYD & D. W. PEACH: The use of resistivity and gamma logging in lithostratigraphical studies of the Chalk in Lincolnshire and South Humberside	71
J. C. BLISS & K. R. RUSHTON: The reliability of packer tests for estimating the hydraulic conductivity of aquifers	81

No. 2

Photographic feature: Construction of a retaining wall in Hong Kong	ii
J. PITTS: A review of geology and engineering geology in Singapore	93
R. D. BARKER & D. HARKER: The location of the Stour buried tunnel-valley using geophysical techniques	103
M. E. BARTON & B. J. COLES: The characteristics and rates of the various slope degradation processes in the Barton Clay Cliffs of Hampshire	117
M. R. KHAWLIE & H. I. HASSANAIN: Engineering geology of the Hammana landslides, Lebanon	137
A. A. FINLAYSON: Land surface evaluation for engineering practice: applications of the Australian PUCE system for terrain analysis	149

Discussion by K. A. STYLES, E. W. BRAND & A. D. BURNETT; reply by R. J. EDWARDS	159
Discussion by R. A. FOX	163
Discussions by T. H. DOUGLAS, C. D. WARREN and A. M. PODHALICZ	165
Discussion by E. J. WILSON; reply by C. N. EDMONDS	167
Book reviews	169
Proceedings of the Hydrogeological Group of the Geological Society, 1983	175

No. 3

Photographic feature: North Point Concourse excavation, Hong Kong	ii
G. I. COTTISS: Preliminary observations on the design and construction of a four-lane highway through expansive clay in Cyprus	179
The Engineering Geology of Tidal Rivers (Regional Meeting of the Engineering Group, Hull, 12-16 September 1983. Further papers from this meeting in No. 4.)
J. R. COFFEY: Construction in tidal rivers: an overview	193
R. W. HORNER: The Thames tidal flood risk—the need for the barrier: a review of its design and construction.	199
MARY P. KENDRICK: Impact of engineering structures on tidal flow and sediment distribution in the Thames.	207
A. B. HAWKINS: Depositional characteristics of estuarine alluvium: some engineering implications.	219
D. A. COOK & M. R. ROY: A review of the geotechnical properties of Somerset alluvium using data from the M5 motorway and other sources	235
A. MCGOWN & D. MILLER: Stratigraphy and properties of the Clyde alluvium . .	243
I. M. KIRKPATRICK & D. M. MCCANN: Engineering geological and geophysical investigation of the Barking Creek tidal barrier site.	259
B. W. CONWAY, D. M. MCCANN, M. SARGINSON & R. A. FLOYD: A geophysical survey of the Crouch/Roach river system in south Essex with special reference to buried channels	269
M. S. FLETCHER & R. A. NICHOLLS: A buried valley in the Orwell estuary. . . .	283
Proceedings: Groundwater Development in Third World countries	289

No. 4

Photographic feature: Colour enhanced infra-red photography of landslips	ii
The Engineering Geology of Tidal Rivers (continued from No. 3)
P. H. McMILLAN: Deep foundations in the River Hull	291

K. F. SIMM: Engineering solutions to geological problems in the design and construction of Humber Bridge	301
M. E. BARTON & M. H. ROCHE: A geological appraisal of the site of the foundation failure of the giant oil tanks at Fawley, Hampshire.	307
D. A. GREENWOOD: Re-levelling a gas holder at Rhyl.	319
M. T. N. FINCH, F. H. HUGHES & R. A. KILNER: Vertical drains used to facilitate road construction for a Medway riverside industrial area	327
NEIL ARBER: A technical note on the design and construction of the Afon Ganol Valley section of the North Wales Coast Road (A55).	335
R. P. THOMPSON: Geotechnical aspects of Greenodd by-pass.	339
R. T. SLOCOMBE: Tunnelling through warp: an estuarine clay	349
<hr/>
S. A. AL-JASSAR & A. B. HAWKINS: Chemical soundness test on Carboniferous Limestone samples from the Bristol area	351
B. A. CHAPPELL, J. R. WILLIAMS & A. N. POLLARD: Stress and slabbing in massive rock	357
G. P. DAW: Application of aquifer testing to deep shaft investigations	367
PETER GRAINGER: The classification of mudrocks for engineering purposes.	381
M. S. ROSENBAUM: Quarrying in the Port Stanley beds	389
Discussion by A. H. ALLEN	393
Discussion by G. H. CHILD & D. R. NORBURY	395
Book review	399
